Professional Profile

Allison is a senior tax manager who manages proactive tax planning and business consulting for a variety of closely held business clients and their owners.

A member of our wealth management practice group, Allison devotes a substantial part of her practice in estate, gift and annual planning for high net worth individuals. Allison also specializes in not-for-profit taxation, tax exempt entities and oil and gas investments.

A Texas native, Allison held management positions in private family offices, in the public sector and in public accounting in her home state before joining Perkins & Company in 2007.
