Professional Profile

Keith joined Perkins & Company in 2001, bringing more than 20 years of experience in public practice with him. Before joining our firm, Keith was a partner in a successful local firm serving business and individual clients.

Keith heads the Business Valuation and Litigation Support practice at Perkins & Company. In addition to business valuations, Keith provides litigation support and expert witness testimony. Keith has experience working with clients in wholesale and retail, professional services, the funeral industry, wineries, manufacturing and other industries.

Keith specializes in providing business advice to closely-held businesses with an emphasis on succession planning. He holds certifications in business valuation and financial forensics. Keith is an active leader in the Oregon Society of Certified Public Accountants and is a past Chairman of the Society.
