PERKINS & COMPANY NAMES NEW MANAGERS

PORTLAND, OR – Perkins & Company, P.C., Oregon’s largest locally owned public accounting firm, is pleased to announce the recent promotion of Cassara Coffeen and Justin Winn to Audit Manager and Christine Gorger to Tax Manager.

Ms. Coffeen, a native Oregonian, focuses her practice on planning and performing audits and reviews for insurance, professional services, technology, manufacturing, not-for-profits, and real estate industry clients. She is also a member of the firm’s employee benefit plan audit practice. Ms. Coffeen graduated from the Pitzer College in Claremont, CA with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and received her post-baccalaureate certificate in Accounting from Portland State University.

Mr. Winn joined Perkins & Co’s audit department in 2004. He has experience planning and performing audits and reviews for manufacturing, professional services, technology, distribution, and healthcare industry clients. His experience also includes insurance statutory accounting issues, business acquisition due diligence, employee benefit plan auditing, and internal control consulting, including SOX 404 issues. Mr. Winn graduated from the University of Oregon with a Masters of Accounting.

Mrs. Gorger joined the tax department at Perkins & Co in 2000. She primarily works with medical practices, professional service firms, and technology companies. Ms. Gorger’s experience includes employee benefit plan reporting, payroll reporting, start-up companies, consolidated and multi-state corporations. Ms. Gorger received her Master of Accountancy with a Tax concentration as well as a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Gonzaga University.

Perkins & Company was established in 1986 and is the anchor firm for Perkins Group, which includes Perkins Consulting, LLC, Pacific Investment Advisors, LLC. Perkins Group employs more than 120 individuals in a single Portland office.
